I N T H I S A G E O F T A K E - A W A Y, you can get everything to go, from flat-pack hotels to over-the-shoulder commuter scooters. Spotting a vacancy in the market for transportable interiors, System Architects of New York developed the 'Carrier' sofa. Allowing for multiple seating/sleeping configurations, the Carrier comprises a wooden frame, insert wheels and leather pads. The dimensions of the disassembled carrier are such that it can be easily fitted inside a standard New York taxi – perfect for nomadic couch potatoes.
